COMPREHENSION — ASK OUT LOUD AFTER READING

QUESTION 1

Who was the story about, and what did they want?

Looking for: a named character and something they were trying to do.

QUESTION 2

Where did the story happen?

Looking for: any place — a house, a forest, a school. Encourage him to point at the picture.

QUESTION 3

What happened first, then next, then last?

Retelling in order is the big first-grade skill. Three beats is plenty.

QUESTION 4

How did the character feel? What made them feel that way?

Looking for: a feeling word plus a reason — "sad because he lost his dog."

QUESTION 5

What was your favorite part, and why?

No wrong answer. This one builds the habit of having an opinion about a book.
